

More Fighting Disclosed in East Congo

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AL)—Fresh bloodshed in the eastern Congo, again involving Congolese troops, was disclosed by the United Nations today.

A spokesman said four civilians were killed and seven European churchmen threatened by hoodlums Wednesday in a brawl at a Roman Catholic mission school in Bagira, Kivu Province.

Local police and the troops were reported to have clashed. All the dead were believed to be Africans at the school, St. Paul's college. In addition, three were wounded. U.N. reports indicated the white men were not injured.

A U.N. Malayan platoon visited the scene Thursday and reported the situation now is calm. Bagira is in eastern Kivu about 240 miles northeast of Kinshasa, a north Katanga town where rampaging Congolese troops massacred 19 Roman Catholic missionaries and an undetermined number of African civilians New Year's Day. The troops were in a command once loyal to pro-Communist Antoine Gizenga, the recently deposed deputy premier.

U.N. reports from Stanleyville indicate that Gizenga is still in his riverside mansion there under guard by central government troops.

Reliable sources said the United Nations has recommended that Gizenga be brought here to remove him from the tense Stanleyville area in case there is any further trouble with Gizengist soldiers.

U.N. headquarters received a report that Col. Alphonse Pakassa, nominally the commander of forces in the eastern Congo, has been returned to Stanleyville from north Katanga. Though this report could not be confirmed, U.N. officials believed he might have been arrested to forestall any new army uprising, following Gizenga's downfall.

Pakassa is the commander of the troops who massacred 13 Italian U.N. airmen at Kindu last November and apparently also perpetrated the Katanga killings.

Where his loyalties now lie—with Gizenga, the central government or elsewhere—is not certain. But troop movements reported in Kivu Province, lying between north Katanga and Stanleyville, have stirred fears that the troops might be moving back to defend their onetime leader.

A reconnaissance plane spotted 200 to 300 Congolese troops around the airport of Kindu, 175 miles north of Kinshasa, which the U.N. force evacuated several days ago.

Woman, Son Are Beaten to Death

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A young Denver woman and her 5-year-old son were found beaten to death Thursday.

Detectives Tom Davey and Keith Morris said Herman Duckworth, 31, a telephone repairman, discovered the bodies of his wife, Shirley Jean, 26, and their son, Dale, when he returned from work.

Morris said the victims were found lying on the floor of the basement of their house.

He said Mrs. Duckworth was stabbed 18 times in the chest and abdomen. There was no immediate evidence she had been raped. The detectives said it appeared Mrs. Duckworth and her son were dressed to go outside when the killer accosted them.

Duckworth told police his son was supposed to have attended kindergarten during the afternoon. Two daughters, Dorothy, 9, and Judy, 8, came home earlier from school and, not finding their mother, went to a neighbor's home.

34 Forest Fires in Hempstead During Past Year Burned 346 Acres With $2,000 Loss

During the calendar year of '61 the state forestry commission suppressed a total of 34 woods fires and several grass fires in Hempstead County.

These fires destroyed or severely damaged 346 acres of commercial timber land, mostly longleaf pine, and caused an estimated monetary damage of $2,000. Also, it cost the forestry commission an estimated $500 to suppress the fires.

The actual statistics of fires and fire damage in Hempstead are below average, and consequently, improved condition, that should be emphasized. However, all fire losses are serious and can be prevented with very few exceptions.

Fire occurrence, whether large or small, will always constitute an economic problem in Hempstead, due to the fact that 60% of the county is in commercial forest which grows on an excellent site. Any and all fires disturb this natural and valuable asset.

However, one of the most encouraging aspects of forest fire control in this county is the fact that, as each year passes, fewer and fewer fires are self-intentionally which at one time was a serious problem.

The majority of fires in the county during the past two years have been caused by: Careless brush burning and careless smokers, says Forester E. E. Waddell.

Fulbright, Mills Ranked Highly

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A national magazine reports in its February issue that a poll of Congress ranks Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., among the five most influential members of each house.

Redbook Magazine says the poll also showed Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Mills, who heads the House Ways and Means Committee, among the five most admired by their colleagues.

The magazine said Fulbright and Mills were the only ones appearing on both lists.

U. S. Assures Full Support to Dominican

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials said today the government newly returned to power in the Dominican Republic has ready-made U.S. recognition and will get full diplomatic and economic support from this country.

Work was resumed at the State Department and in the Agency for International Development on an aid program designed to bolster the Dominican economy.

Plans were made to clear away the last barriers to resumption of normal trade by wiping out finally the sanctions once imposed against the regime of the late dictator Rafael L. Trujillo.

Administration officials were obviously delighted at the speed with which the junta dominated by Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarría was overthrown Thursday night. The development came with stunning suddenness 48 hours after the Dominican air force chief's hand-picked group had taken power upon the resignation Tuesday night of President Joaquin Balaguer.

"We consider that what has occurred now is a resumption of constitutional government in the Dominican Republic," one official said.

In the State Department, the decision was to "forget about the two days they were out of power" and simply continue with the recognition previously accorded. That means a renewal of normal diplomatic relations whereas the department had threatened to deny recognition—a stronger gesture than breaking of diplomatic ties—by Echavarría established a military dictatorship.

The would-be strong man was overthrown, officials said, because he clearly had no base of popular support, had little if any strong backing among the military leaders and even lacked effective support among the country's top political leaders.

Rafael Bonnelly, the new president named to succeed Balaguer, is leader of the National Civic Union, a political organization regarded by U.S. officials as the main hope for development of democracy in the nation which suffered for 30 years under Trujillo dictatorship.

As former vice president under Balaguer, Bonnelly succeeds normally to the presidency upon Balaguer's resignation, Washington officials said, so that no constitutional question arises.

The new overturn exceeded even the best hopes that had been voiced privately earlier this week by U.S. officials.

But, there have been so many ups and downs in the small country since Dictator Rafael Trujillo's assassination last May 30, U.S. officials tend to be cautious in their reactions.

Programs of U.S. aid and trade for the Dominican Republic had been suspended while a junta headed by Gen. Rodriguez Echavarría held control of the Santo Domingo government for only two days.

The threat that Echavarría, 37, might have been setting up a military dictatorship was feared here. Now that the Bonnelly group has recaptured control, steps presumably will be taken again to restore normal trade with the Caribbean country and to set in motion a new aid program.

At a news conference Thursday a few hours before the Echavarría junta was overthrown, Secretary of State Dean Rusk made clear the United States was using all its influence to try to obtain the return to power of what he called "moderate elements."

Earlier in the day, Washington was reported planning political actions and probably an economic crackdown if the junta proved to be a military dictatorship.

Phone Rate Hike Is Under Study

LITTLE ROCK (AL)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission took under advisement Thursday a request by the Mountain Home Telephone Co. for approval of its new rate schedule.

Attorneys for persons protesting the increase cross-examined company witnesses at a hearing before the PSC Thursday.

The protests arose in the Gamble, Henderson and Lake View areas of Baxter County. City customers did not protest and the current case does not affect them.

The company put the new rates into effect when it switched to dial last month. It would have to make a refund if the PSC does not approve the new rates.

GENEVA (AP)—The three feuding princes of Laos reached agreement here today on a formula for a government of national unity.

The agreement was announced by neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma at the end of a two-hour meeting of the three princes.

Souvanna Phouma said "very great progress" was made at the meeting, and there were hopes a united Laotian government could be set up before the end of the month.

But he stressed that the agreement still has to be ratified by rightist supporters of Prince Boun Oum in Laos.

State Group Pleased With Flood Works

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas senators say they are well pleased with President Kennedy's budget recommendations for more than $80.5 million for Arkansas water projects in the next fiscal year.

But Sen. John McClellan said one or two projects might need additional money. For instance, he said, Army Engineers have indicated they could use $600,000 in addition to $2 million recommended for planning Arkansas River navigation locks and dams.

But generally, he said, the program submitted is substantially adequate and will do much to further the overall development of all water resources.

Senator J. William Fulbright termed the budget request good news and said "The investment of this money will pay rich dividends in future years."

In the President's recommendations to Congress he recommended under general construction all most $73 million.

Of that, $66.8 million is for construction, $2.6 million for planning, $100,000 for surveys and $3,311,000 for maintenance and operation.

It was a record amount for the state and greater than the total for any other state.

For the Lower Mississippi River project, the President recommended almost $7 million for construction, $100,000 for planning and $728,000 for operations and maintenance.

McClellan, a member of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee, said he is confident Congress will appropriate at least the amount the President requested.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A U.S. Civil Service Commission official has said the Justice Department is being hampered in an investigation of the Arkansas Employment Security Division because some witnesses have declined to cooperate.

The official, Phillip J. LaMacchia, wrote Mrs. John Reid, chairman of the Little Rock branch of the American Association of University Women, that the witnesses "are in fear of jeopardizing their employment with the state or do not wish to stir up additional controversy."

The AAUW protested to government officials the recent termination of an ESD job held by Joe Hirschfelder, one of the witnesses who testified that some ESD officials had solicited money for Gov. Orval E. Faubus' campaign.

Later Hirschfelder was reinstated in another ESD job. Four of the nine who testified at the hearing into possible violation of the Hatch Act are no longer with the ESD.

The three ESD employees charged with violating the Hatch Act were found guilty Monday by the Civil Service Commission, which recommended that the state dismiss them. The state has 30 days to act and so far has done nothing.

Faubus said Thursday he hasn't decided what to do. He indicated that he felt the whole affair had been conducted to embarrass him.

LaMacchia is chief of the Hatch Act and Litigation Section of the U.S. Civil Service Commission. He said two witnesses flatly refused to cooperate with the Justice Department but that investigators are talking with others.

The persons referred to were not identified.

The three found guilty of violating the Hatch Act were Luke Arnet, William Watkins and Charles Wood. Watkins was announced his retirement, effective Feb. 1.

Snow, Sleet Hit State, Cold Wave Warning

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, mixed at times with sleet, fell in north Arkansas Thursday night and today and left an icy glaze over highways and streets in some areas.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said most of the state would experience a cold wave tonight, with temperatures as low as zero.

It said also there might be some more light snow or a mixture with rain or sleet.

Many schools closed in some north Arkansas areas because of the hazardous condition of the highways.

Counties affected by the school closings included Boone, Marion, Newton, Searcy and Carroll.

The Weather Bureau said the snow fall reported by its weather observation stations showed only a light fall.

However, the Highway Department said its reports indicated as much as three inches on the ground at some spots in north central Arkansas, which apparently was the area hardest hit.

Harrison had approximately an inch on the ground.

Heavy traffic was stalled at points in the mountains, including Highway 65 south of Harrison.

Some areas which escaped snow experienced freezing rain overnight and this also made roads slick.

Skirmishes Along Lines in Laos

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Skirmishing is picking up along the cease-fire lines in Laos, Western military sources said today.
They reported a gradual increase in the intensity of fighting at half a dozen points over the past two weeks.

Moreover, the informants said the best available intelligence here—based largely on reports of defectors—indicates between 6,000 and 7,000 men from Communist orth Viet Nam, including troops, advisers and technicians, are in rebel-held territory.

The clashes are mostly resulting from probing by both sides and have not reached a point where these sources consider the over-all situation alarming or indicating a major pro-Communist offensive is imminent.

But Westerners appeared to be swinging around toward viewpoints expressed earlier this month in royal Laotian government communiques which they had discounted at the time.

Those communiques, reporting heavy Red Vietnamese infiltration and increased military activity, had been issued in a period while the United States was putting pressure on the pro-Western premier, Prince Boun Oum, to get together with neutralist and pro-Communist princely rivals to complete a coalition government.

Boun Oum finally agreed to go to Geneva for a meeting. But he has been adamant there in his insistence that rightists retain the interior and defense ministries which the neutralist premier-designate, Prince Souvanna Phouma, wants run by neutralists.

Execution Date Set for Negro Slay

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.
Orval E. Faubus today set Feb.
16 as execution date for convicted Negro slayer Clarence Stewart
Jr., and Edward Walton Jr.

Faubus said he had received no request for executive clemency for either man.
"Indications are there may be further litigation in these cases," the governor said, "but anything done now must be done in the courts. My decision is made and the date set."

Stewart was convicted in the
Jan. 8, 1958, fatal stabbing of a North Little Rock auto parts dealer.
Walton was sentenced in the June 20, 1959, fatal shooting of a night watchman at Ashdown.
Both victims were white.

Re-Appointment

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.
Orval E. Faubus reappointed Spencer Fox of Pine Bluff to the state Forestry Commission today.
Fox is the commission chairman. His new nine-year term runs through Jan. 14, 1971.

In executive session "because of the delicate nature of negotiations and developments in the Congo just now."

Dentist X-Rays to Be Checked

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Health Department will check X-ray machines used by dentists over the state to make sure they are safe.

Dr. J. T. Herron, the state health officer, said three two-man teams will begin immediately examining an estimated 1,000 machines for stray radiation that might be harmful to the dentist or his patients.

Each dentist will be notified of the date his machine will be checked.

"Radiation is cumulative in effect," Herron said. "In a lifetime you can take just so much and no more."

The check is being made as a precaution, Herron added, and not because there have been reports of radiation injuries in the state.

Herron said the first survey would be for dentists, but that later X-ray machines used by hospital and physicians would be checked.

Diet Is Not Successful for Many

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Although one out of three Americans is overweight, only one out of ten seems to be able to diet successfully, and anyway, some psychiatrists aren't certain that all overweight people should try to slim down. (When they fail, they lose self-confidence.)

There was a sample of the information surveyed to the calorie and cholesterol conscious public Thursday night. "CBS Reports," which assembled the TV program may have caused a number of dietic backsliders today.

It was a thorough although discouraging summary of a national problem—excess pounds—with an excursion into the associated diet problems of cholesterol, the substance which seems to be clogging America's arteries.

NBC's biographical documentary on active, peppery Gen. Jim my Doolittle really was a short course in American aviation hung on the life of an American military hero. It was interesting—but Gen. Doolittle himself started to emerge as a person only at the very end in a too-short interview. Before that, the great events in which he played an important part held stage center.

Leonard Bernstein's CBS concert may be held for young people, but Thursday night's program of Paris-inspired music was delight for the older crowd too.

Tennessee Ernie Ford, after a short TV sabbatical, returns to the cameras in April—the easy way. He'll do a daily morning show from ABC's San Francisco studios, near his northern California home.

CBS' "Father of the Bride" series, which has not caused any TV sets to catch fire, has nevertheless received an added lease on life which will carry it through summer re-runs.

Sunday—Bing Crosby golf tournament, ABC 6:30 p.m.—annual pro-amateur matches from Pebble Beach, Calif.; "Focus," NBC, 5-6—dramatization of Arthur Miller novel with James Whitmore and Colleen Dewhurst; "Twentieth Century," CBS 6:30—"The Airport Jam," about our crowded landing fields; "Circus," NBC, 10-11—a documentary treatment of the tent shows.

Texan Receives Critical Acclaim

NEW YORK (AP) — James Mathis, a Texas pianist in his middle 20s, received critical acclaim for his New York debut at Carnegie Hall Wednesday night. Pianist Van Cliburn, a fellow Texan, attended the recital and made a brief welcoming speech from the stage. Mathis recently won the National Federation of Music Clubs Award established by Cliburn in memory of Theodore Steinway.

Fine Jail But Few Prisoners

CUNEO, Italy (AP) This north Italian town of 3,000 people has nearly finished an up-to-date jail complete with reception rooms, central heating and modern plumbing in every cell. But it lacks one thing—enough convicts. The jail has quarters for 400, but Cuneo's old jail has only 20 prisoners ready to move into the new one.

points in the room where two tables of club members met.

Mrs. R. L. Branch was the high scorer and Mrs. George Robinson was second. During the afternoon coffee, cold drinks and snacks were served.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gibson III of Minneapolis, Minn., became the parents of a son Jan. 17. He weighed 11 lbs and 7 ozs. and has been John Seva. Grandmothers are Mrs. J. S. Gibson of Hope and Mrs. A. J. Bailey of St. Paul Minn.

Coming and Going

John David Whitlow of Little Rock visited Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Moore Jr. this week when he attended the Southwest Waterworks Convention in Hope.

If you have figure problems, cheer up. You've plenty of company. But remember, figure faults can be lessened by choosing your clothes carefully. For the short girl (left) the coat with narrow lines, three-quarter sleeves and neat little collar is a wise choice. Plump girl (center) should stay with simple, one-piece styles and be neat at all times. The tall girl (right) can get away with the overblouse and narrow pants. She can also wear wide belts and large collars.

Mother's Advice: Play the Field

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: How do you handle an erring mother. I am 17, engaged to marry a 22-year-old boy as conservative as myself. Everybody approves but Mother, who has suddenly become as wild as a cat.

Until recently she and I were real close. She knew everything I did, said and thought. I respected her advice — something I can no longer do because, to everybody's consternation, including father's, she has suddenly become Giddy Gertie.

She will drift in at midnight and casually tell me of parking, necking and petting with other men. She treats me like Mrs. Methuselah.

Last evening my fiance and I called on friends of his — older than we. Mother came home long after I did. When I told her of my pleasant evening, she held up her hands in horror. "What," she exclaimed, "with those middle-aged dudes?"

Why has she changed? I feel so sorry for Father. He approves of my fiance. The boy has a good job and is in the process of starting his own road — construction business as well as buying a farm. He is an Elk. My mother says he will spend all his time after we are married at the Elks Club. I don't believe that. He takes me to their Saturday night dances. I find the people there much nicer than at the taverns and cocktail lounges which my mother frequents.

Daughter Dear Disfranch: Your mother is having the fling she evidently missed as a girl and to justify it, urges you to have yours.

I cannot help but feel sorry for her since obviously something has soured in her own marriage else she wouldn't be reverting to second girlhood.

From what you say, she has been an understanding mother in the past. Don't judge her too harshly now. Encourage her to confide in you. In this way you may get at the root of her problem and help her as well as your father. Children are sometimes more mature than their parents. Play Little Mother to yours.

Dear Helen: I fibbed to my husband about smoking. Now he won't believe anything I say. We are married seven years, have three lovely children and should be happy but aren't because of my silly white lie.

I told him I wasn't smoking. Later he found out I was. I swore on our Bible I would never do it again and haven't, but he accuses

Midwest Is Hit by New Snowstorm

By HE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A massive snow storm plodded across the Midwest toward the Ohio River Valley and the southeastern states today.

It piled up record-breaking amounts of snow in eastern Kansas and western Missouri—an area that has taken a heavy pounding all winter. It also caused five deaths.

A cold wave was expected to thrust down across the Midwest behind the snowfall today, dropping temperatures to below zero in Kansas and Missouri and bringing near-zero readings into Oklahoma, parts of Texas, Arkansas and southern Missouri.

There also was danger of heavy drifting in eastern Kansas and in northwestern Missouri.

The prospects caused scores of schools in the Kansas-Missouri snow belt to remain closed. Most school children depend on buses, and officials were reluctant to expose them to the dangers of becoming trapped in snowdrifts. All public schools in Wichita and Kansas City were closed.

Wichita, in south central Kansas, measured 15 inches of new snow through Thursday night, on top of 2 inches of old snow. The previous record was 12 inches on the ground in Wichita March 9, 1909.

Kansas City had 14 inches of new snow and a total cover of 21 inches. The city has had 30 inches this month, 8 inches more than any previous January. Since Dec. 8, Kansas City has had 4 inches of snow.

Only one highway, a state road between Cottonwood Falls and the Butler County line, was closed in Kansas. All Missouri roads were open.

The snowstorm was a factor in a two-car collision that killed four persons and injured three others near Great Bend, Kan.

Killed were Mrs. Leonard Unruh, 36, of Denver, and her children, Amy Beth, 9 weeks, David, 8, and Allison, 6.

Unruh, the husband and father, was in critical condition with head and back injuries and a broken leg.

Injured in the other car were Earl Cregger, 18, and George Panatta, 26, both of Great Bend. At Newton, Kan., John W. Bafus, 70, died of a heart attack after shoveling snow.

Snow, sleet and rain also hit most all other sections of the country but the weather was not as blustery as in the Lower Missouri Valley.

Cold weather clung to broad areas from the Midwest into the Northeast, with sub-zero temperatures in most northern areas, including 30 in Bozeman and Drummond, Mont. Temperatures generally were below normal over the major part of the country as the cold spell showed no indication of a general, immediate break.

Heavy snow fell in Clarksville, Tenn., and two to five inches was indicated

Five Selected to Arkansas Hall of Fame

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It was baseball night at the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame — with three of this year's five new members having earned their keep in the diamond game.

And much of the talk Thursday night at the annual banquet was about baseball—past and present. They talked about the feats of old, and the present dire straits of the Southern Association.

The baseball greats enshrined were the late Schoolboy Rowe, Ruben Robinson and Ray Winder. With them went football legends Carey Selph and John Tucker.

Those five bring the membership of the 4-year-old Hall of fame to 21.

Ruben Robinson, whose pitching was the Little Rock Travelers' main ticket for 13 years, looked ahead instead of behind. He said he hopes the troubled Southern Association can continue to operate with eight teams.

This year, the league may have to go with six teams.

Charlie Huth, former Southern president who installed Little Rock baseball executive Ray Winder into the hall, acknowledged that the Southern is in trouble, but added, "Its destiny is in the hands of Ray Winder and Joe Engel of Chattanooga. If it can be saved it will be. They'll get the job done."

Frank Secum, who represented baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said "All of baseball is proud of Ray Winder."

Winder began his career as Little Rock executive in 1931, and has been a guiding force in the Southern Association since.

The speech making and joking-making of the annual banquet was woven together by Joe Garagiola, serving as toastmaster for the fourth straight year. He is former major league catcher and now a sportscaster.

He read telegrams of congratulations from people in high and low spots in the sports world. One of the telegrams—to Ray Winder—came from the former peanut vendor at Travelers' Field.

Bill Dickey, a charter member of the Hall of Fame and a member also of Baseball's Hall of Fame for his feat as a New York Yankee, installed Ruben Robinson.

"He was the greatest single drawing card the Travelers ever had," Dickey said. Dickey placed Robinson among the greatest pitchers he ever caught.

Schoolboy Rowe, who died last January, was represented by Bill Walton, his coach at El Dorado High School. He accepted a plaque from George Kell, another ex-Detroit Tiger. Kell presented Schoolie.

Walton called Rowe the greatest athlete this country ever produced. The talk wasn't all about baseball. The induction of Carey Selph brought back memories of his great playing days at Ouachita in the 1920s. Selph said he played four years of 66-minute football and was lucky enough never to get hurt. But he maintained he'd been given credit for what others had done.

Selph later was a major league infielder and a baseball star and manager at Houston in the Texas League.

John Tucker, Arkansas Tech's football star, coach and athletic director, was introduced by C. B. (Foots) Clement, who played on the same teams with Tucker at Arkansas Tech and Alabama. That was after Tucker had finished playing at Tech.

Tucker credited the linemen with his success as a back, and the players in general for his success as a coach.

Anything Can Happen in Crosby Meet

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—

Anything can happen and probably will today in the second round of Bing Crosby's $50,000 golf tournament as the huge field chases two youngsters and a sharp-shooting old timer.

Former national collegiate champions Joe Campbell and Phil Rodgers had the lead to themselves at 67 until Chuck Congdon, 52, came along to equal it and wrap the first round of this 72-hole event in a three-way deadlock.

All three fired over the Monterey Peninsula Country Club course. Today they tee off at Pebble Beach, a layout considered two to three strokes tougher.

Rodgers of San Diego, the 1950 NCAA champ while at the University of Houston, continued the spectacular golf that won him the Los Angeles Open by nine strokes two weeks ago. Campbell, the collegiate titlist at Purdue in 1955, fired five birdies in the final nine holes to put himself on the top rung.

Then Congdon, of Tacoma, Wash., who was playing tournament golf before the other co-leaders were born, blazed in with his 67 that included birdie putts of 40, 20 and 18 feet.

Even with their five-under par rounds, the leading trio could count only a one-stroke lead over Jackie Cupit, Bill Casper, Mason Rudolph and Harry Umbinelli, the latter a pro from North Bend, Wash., who was invited by Crosby himself.

Cupit and Rudolph both played at Monterey Peninsula but Casper and Umbinelli played at more rugged Cypress Point. By Saturday night all players will have teared each of the three par 72 courses.

At Cypress Thursday PGA champion Jerry Barber and South Africa's Gary Player were soaring to 79's there while Arnold Palmer had a 76. Jack Nicklaus, the 1961 national amateur champ and now a pro, had a 71.

Defending champion Bob Rosburg shot only a 75, the same as Art Doering who carded a hole-in-one on the 110-yard seventh at Pebble Beach in the first foursome to play it.

Bradley Team Whoops It Up for the Lead

By JIM HACKLEMAN

This doesn't come under the heading of earth-shaking news in college basketball circles, but the Bradley Braves are whooping it up as if they meant to shake their number one rank in the Missouri Valley Conference.

That's been said of the Braves in other years, of course. And they still have a way to go before writing a happier ending for themselves this time around. But there's no doubt they're in the driver's seat as of now.

Thursday night the nationally ninth-ranked Braves rapped Drake 77-65, giving them 10 straight victories and running their conference record to 4-0. Tulsa upended second-place Wichita 80-77 and defending Missouri Valley champion Cincinnati beat Duquesne 62-54 in a non-league game. Wichita is 4-2 in the conference and Cincinnati is 3-2.

Chet Walker again played a key role for Bradley in the victory at Drake, pumping in 19 first half points in leading Bradley to a 43-34 edge. He ended the evening with 26 points.

Tulsa slipped through, over and around Wichita's heralded zone defense with some clever floor play and fast breaking in its upset of the Wheatshockers.

Third ranked Cincinnati (13-2) spent most of the night chasing Duquesne's fifth-ranked Dukes (12-2) at Pittsburgh, then capitalized on its chances from the foul line and pulled away in the final 10 minutes. The Dukes had 21 field goals to 10 for the Bearcats, but Cincinnati decided it on foul shooting, 22 to 12. Tom Thacker scored 17 for the Cats, Ron Bonham had 15 and Paul Hogue 14.

Gary Marriell's blazing finish paced fourth-ranked Kansas State (13-2), to a 69-66 Big Eight decision over Missouri. The 6-5 junior fired in the Wildcats' last 14 points.

Cage Sandal Development Not Revealed

NEW YORK (AP) — The latest developments in the current college basketball scandals produced a few solid facts and a couple of "no comment" mysteries.

New York Attorney Charles Tucker, 25, pleaded guilty Thursday to an indictment charging him with attempts to fix college basketball games.

The district attorney's office disclosed that another college basketball player, Dennis (Billy) Reed of Bowling Green University in Ohio, has been called in for questioning.

But District Attorney Frank Hogan refused to give any further details.

"He's just another player called in on the continuing investigation," Hogan's office said through a spokesman.

Reed's name came out when his attorney, Jack Molinas, withdrew after a conference with General Sessions Judge Thomas Dickens. No reason was given for the withdrawal of Molinas as Reed's lawyer.

Reed, a 6-foot-4 senior from Flushing, N.Y., quit the Bowling Green team in December. The district attorney's office would not say when, where or why Reed was questioned.

Tucker, who entered a guilty plea, previously had been indicted on three counts of bribery and one of conspiracy involving players at Connecticut, Columbia, New York University and Oregon.

Judge Joseph Sarafite continued Tucker in $1,000 bond for sentencing Feb. 21.

He was charged with offering $1,000 each to players Pete Kelly of Connecticut, Fred Portnoy of Columbia and Ray Paprocky of NYU to shave points in three games in 1960 and 1961. He was charged with conspiracy for allegedly approaching Oregon sub James Granata, but Hogan's office said no deals were completed.

The scandals have now involved 37 players from 22 colleges.

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn grand jury has decided there was no ground to indict anyone in connection with a reported offer of a $60,000 bribe involving the choice of the Democratic minority leader of the State Assembly.

The probe resulted from a statement by City Councilman Joseph T. Sharkey that a builder offered him $60,000 to help get the minority leadership for Assemblyman Stanley Steingut of Brooklyn in 1958.

Steingut, who did not get the post, is still an assemblyman. He has denied knowledge of any bribe offer, and he charges a "political smear."
